

An Upper Room with Evening Lamps 274

1 An up - per room with eve - ning lamps a - shine,
 2 We see by faith up - on the cross dis - played,
 3 Dead for our sins, yet reign - ing now a - bove,
 4 So send us out, to love and serve and praise,

the twelve dis - ci - ples, and the ta - ble spread;
 his bod - y bro - ken and his blood out - poured;
 still to our hearts we find his pres - ence given;
 filled with his Spir - it, as the Mas - ter said:

now in our turn Christ bids us pour the wine, in that dread robe of maj - es - ty ar - rayed take for our - selves the pledg - es of his love, love, joy and peace the wine of all our days,

and in re - mem - brance bless and break the bread.
 we gaze in wor - ship on the dy - ing Lord.
 fore - taste and to - ken of that feast in heaven.
 Christ and his life our true and liv - ing bread.
