“We praise you, we bless you, we worship you, we glory you” are presented in antiphonal effect using both Latin and English exchanged between men and women’s voices. MARY HAD A BABY
Traditional Spiritual/Arr. Lloyd Larson

As arranged by Lloyd Larson, this blues-gospel rendition based on the traditional Christmas spiritual is richly soulful and power-packed. The addition of the Adesete Fidelices “O come, let us adore him,” enhances the drama while the dynamic rhythm parts heighten the impact of the retelling of King Jesus’ birth in a manger.

Here is a piece that can be used as a choral introit or a processional during the Christmas season. It also functions as a seamless introduction to the congregational singing of “The First Noel.” A simple ostinato pattern for 6 handbells provides the accompaniment as Unison and SATB choirs sing an “echo and response,” welcoming in Christmas with their joyous “noels.”

Here is a bright, exuberant anthem proclaiming “glory to God” suitable for many uses throughout the church year. A rhythmic pulse is the most prominent feature of the opening melody with a contrasting middle section incorporating an a cappella verse of the doxology,

This setting pairs a popular Andraé Crouch song with the Traditional Spiritual “Amen” in an effective gospel treatment by Joel Raney. As the church responds to the word of God, the church collectively says “Amen.” Useful for any worship setting affirming God’s guidance, direction and leadership of the church.

This Communion “ring & sing” anthem is now available for two-part mixed choir with optional handbell accompaniment. This is a tried and proven winner from the Hope catalog and ideal for churches looking for creative ways to include handbells in worship. The SATB demo recording with piano accompaniment can be listened to at hopepublishing.com.

This upbeat anthem is sure to be a toe-tapper with a message to “let your light shine, shine, shine!” Set in a gospel style, Mary McDonald has created an original anthem that is perfect for the season of Epiphany or any worship service centering on being the light of Christ in the world.
God’s Faithfulness

This powerful hymn from Keith Getty and Stuart Townend is driven with both energy and with a text about the mission of Church. “By faith we see the hand of God.” “By faith the prophets saw a day when the longed-for Messiah would appear,” “By faith the church was called to go to the lost.” The children of promise are called to finish the work and walk by faith. Lloyd Larson pairs it with the refrain of “Great Is Thy Faithfulness,” heightening the message.

The American folk song “Jesus, Jesus, Rest Your Head” is a gentle lullaby portraying the irony of the Christ Child sleeping in a lowly manger while “evil folk” sleep on feathers at their birth. The lyrical tune is simple and beautifully realized with a solo violin as the introduction. Sweet, colorful sonorities from the choir illustrate the awe of the animals at the incarnation, while the harp is evoked in the piano accompaniment — perfect for any Christmas service.

Mary McDonald captures the spirit and message of two popular songs that deal with the significance of prayer for the individual believer and the church as a whole. Choirs will enjoy the flavor of this partnered song with its unhurried rhythmic style and supportive accompaniment.

The familiar words of Psalm 23 are the basis for this new Joel Raney anthem for SATB choirs with optional organ and 3-5 octave handbells. It proclaims the message that God is our refuge in times of trouble, and our strength and shelter from the storm. The addition of the familiar hymn verse “I Sing the Mighty Power of God” is inserted to strengthen the impact of this powerful offering.
